Fantastic 'I dos' in Antigua

■ One of 10 lucky agents who joined a weddings and honeymoons fam trip to Antigua, Julie Arksey tells all.

"Antigua is a stunning location for weddings of all sizes. Without some of the red-tape found in other places, it's easier to say 'I do' – just pick a beach, a historic spot overlooking the azure waters, or a traditional church.

"Home of Liat, it's easy to twin Antigua with other Caribbean islands and many resorts offer free wedding packages so it's for all budgets.

We spent four nights at the fun Jolly Beach, with superb food at Bocciolo's, and a good spa. St James Club was next, where the new adult-only Royal St James Club had spacious rooms with bathrooms to die for and The Verandah, where the semi-detached villas on stilts all face the sea."

Best of the rest:

Curtain Bluff – the Caribbean's best-stocked wine cellar, gorgeous ocean-facing rooms and calm oasis of a spa; Blue Waters – voted 'best waterfront villas in the world'; The Inn at English Harbour – quintessentially English, with manicured lawns and lovely views.
